DECEMBER 2

CITY NEWS. WANTED.—A small boy, ten or twelve years of age, to "fly sheets" for a press. Apply at this office, to day, between the hours of 1 and 3 P. M.

THE ADAMS EXPRESS.—We are daily placed under obligations to the Adams Express Com-pany for files of Eastern papers in advance of the mail. Such favors are appreciated.

Police Court.—Judge Lowe disposed of twenty-five cases yesterday morning, none of which were of sufficient importance to entitle them a place in our columns.

Ognex & Sec .- These well-known merchant tailors, at No. 32 West Fourth-street, are in receipt of a superb stock of business and overcoats. See advertisement.

BIVALVES.—For fresh Baltimore systers go to Robert Orr, No. 11 West Fifth-street. Those of our citizens who have tried them pronounce them excellent. Do not forget this, and when in want of oysters go to Orr's.

Assessing Ordinances .-- Ordinances assess ing a special tax on the real estate on Plam-street, from Fifth to Sixth, and Em from Seventh to Eighth-streets, for paving, were passed Wednesday night.

IN DEMAND .- The rainy weather yesterday caused the water proof boots, made by J. H. Deters, to be in great demand. Persons are determined to have dry feet, feeling that per-fect health demands it. Leave your orders at No. 53 West Fourth-street.

TEMPERANCE LECTURE AT MELODEON HALL. A temperance lecture will be delivered this evening at the Melodeon Hall, by Mr. S. M. Hewlitt. Mr. H. has attained considerable reputation as an apostlo of temperance, and will doubtless both instruct and amuse his au

A LIBERAL BANKER .- A Third-street banker recently attended church, it is said, and when the contribution box was passed, dropped in half a dollar and took out four dimes. He has become so inoculated with the ten per cent. system, perhaps, that there is no room left in his heart for generosity.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CELEBRATION AT SEDAMS-VILLE.—The new School-house at Sedamsville, in Storrs Township, will be opened on Sunday afternoon, December 24, at half past two o'clock, by a union meeting of the Sunday Schools of the Township. Addresses will be delivered by Judge Storer, H. Thene Miller and others. The public are invited to attend.

THREE OF CALAMR'S LANDSCAPES IN THIS CITY.—Mr. E. W. Wheelock informs us that a paragraph in our colums, stating that there are some of Calame's landscapes in the country, is incorrect; that there are at leas three of that artist's original pictures in this city. We are glad to hear this, and would like much to see them.

BURGLARY ON MOUND-STREET -The house of a man named Daniel James, located on Mound-street, near Eighth, was feloniously entered night before last, but the burglars were frightened from their purpose before they had suc-ceeded in obtaining any booty. Their noise aroused the inmates, who gave chase, but the scoundrels finally made their escape.

AMOUNT OF FINES COLLECTED AT THE POLICE COURT.—The following, taken from the books in the office of the Police Court shows the amount of fines and costs collected at that institution during the past month : ..$1,220 80

KSICKERBOCKER. - The popular Knickerbacker Magazine for December, filled with in-viting reading, is before us. It, together with Harper's Weekly, Frank Leslie's Namepaper, Banner of Light, and Porter's Spirit, can be had at Peace & Co.'s, Sixth-street, east of Walnut-street. Also, "The Life, Trial and Conviction of Capt. John Brown," containing a full account of the insurrection at Harper's Ferry, with several illustrations.

AN UMBRELLA HERO.—An overgallant youth, of large impulses and small income, attributes his frequent financial embarrassments to the vest amount of umbrellas he purchases and gives away to young ladies on rainy days. He passes most of his time during inclement weather on Fourth-street, where he has a room, distributing umbrellas to divinities overcome by his kindness and a shower. He might well be termed a rain-beau, if he were not an umbrella hero.

PROCEEDINGS OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS. At the regular session of the County Commis-sioners, held yesterday morning, orders were passed amounting to an aggregate of $418 90, of which $335 50 were paid to George D. Winchell & Co., for pumping machine for Southwestern Lunatic Asylum. They also passed a resolution to the effect that the filling on the Roll Road Bridge over the west fork of Millereek has been done to their entire satisfaction.

CAUTION TO STREET RAILROAD PASSENGERS .-A young lady quite delicate and refined in her appearance, residing on Seventh-street near Mound, despite the caution of the conductor and without accepting his assistance, which was gallantly proffered, yesterday morning insisted on stepping from one of the cars of the Cincinnati Street Railroad Company, while it was still in motion. Her rashness caused her to be thrown violently to the ground directly under the wheels of a wood wagon which hap-pened to be passing at the time, and, but for the timely assistance she received, would nu-doubtedly have crushed her to death. Her injuries are very slight, but the circumstance will serve as a caution, hereafter, we hope, to all ladies, not to leave a car until it has ceased to move. ARREST OF THE SWINDLER MARSHALL .- Geo. Marshall, the individual who was noticed in the issue of this paper as having swindled Duhme & Co. out of watches and jewelry to the amount of $475, was arrested yesterday in Columbus and brought to this city. He will make his appearance this morning before Judge Lowe, and probably attempt a defense of his conduct.

Since the above was in type we have learned that Marshall was brought to the city yesterday morning, examined before Justice Marchant and committed in default of ball to the amount of $1,500. All the property has been recovered, and now the adroit swindler is about to be compelled to pay for goods he never was permitted to use.

THE VILLAGE OF READING TO BE ENLARGED. County Commissioners received a petition this morning from a number of persons who reside to the neighborhood of the village of Reading, praying that the following described property might be made a part of that town: Commencing at the routh-west corner of said corporation line, or at the Lockland Bridge, ever Millereek; thence south with the meandering of Millcreek to the quarter sec-tion line; thence east along said line to the section line of section twenty-three; thence north along said section line to the east corner of said corporation line; thence west along said corporation line; thence west along said corporation line to the place of begin-ning. Said described boundary lines include all of James H. Oliver's second addition to Lockland and Reading.

The petition has been signed by a majority of the residents of the territory they desire to have annexed to the village, and it is quite likely the County Commissioners will grant lection of Delegates to the Charleston rest of the Perpetrator in this City. ported all correct.

The committee also reported the following resolutions, which, after some discussion, were disposed of as follows:

Resolved, That the delegates to represent the First Congressional District in the Charleston Convention shall pledge themselves to support the Hon. Stephen A. Douglas as the first and last choice of the Democracy of Hamilton County for President of the United States, and also that they will work honestly and faithfully, using all honorable means to cure his nomination. Passed by a vote of Resolved, That the Convention elect one delegate at a time. Passed.

Revolved, That this committee recommend to the Convention that one delegate be elected from the city and one from the county. Laid

Resolved, That the votes be given vive coce by Wards and Townships, and that a ma-jority of all the votes in the Convention shall be necessary to a choice. Passed.

Resolved, That the lowest candidate on each uccessive ballot be dropped. Rejected.

Resolved, That the ordinary rules governing Democratic Conventions shall govern this ody. Passed. On motion of Mr. John Schenek, it was resolved that the candidates be brought before the Convention, and pledged to obey its in-

The Convention then proceeded to nominate candidates for delegates to the Charleston Convention, with the following result:

Henry P. Bowmas, of Columbia, and Charles Rule, of the First Ward of this city, were then declared the delegates elect, and the Convention adjourned.

Resolved, That this Convention will not tol erate the nomination of any candidate who will not vote for Stephen A. Douglas for the Presidency, from first to last. This resolution excited a long discussion. but was finally passed by an almost unanimous vote.

Upon motion of Mr. Peters, the Convention proceeded to nominate persons to represent the Second District in the Charleston Convention, with the following result. The candidates came forward, as is the custom of Democratic candidates, and pledged themselves to vote according to the instructions of the Convention. The result of the ballotting was as follows:

3d, 4th. 15 00 40 00 34 41 18 2 29 21 2 00 00 00 George Hatch
Weeley M Cameron
William T. Forest
John Schiff
Bart Smith
Melancthon W. Oliver

From the above exhibit it will be seen that Wesley M. Cameron was nominated upon the third, and William T. Forest upon the fourth ballot, and after they had been dec elected, the Convention adjourned.

NUMBER OF FIRES DURING THE PAST MONTH During the past month there were eight fires, none of which, however, were particularly destructive. Through the courtesy of the persons connected with the office of the Chief Engineer of the Fire Department, Mr. Enoch Megrue, we give the following list, with the loss that attended each fire:

November 6-Frame house on Western-row, near Everett-street. Loss $200. Sth-Alarm caused by burning of a chimney on the corner of Fifth and Modellister-street. 11th-On board the steamboat Moderator. Loss $100.

14th—Frame house on John-street, between Third and Fourth. Loss $200. On the same day a frame house was burnt in the Seventeenth Ward, on Front-street.

16th-Three-story brick dwelling on the corner of Vine street and Third-alley, near the Inmilten Road. Loss $1,000.

284-Coal oil factory on the corner of Third-street and the Miami Canal. Loss $700. 26th-Saw mill in the Seventeenth Ward, belonging to Mr. Charles Vance. Loss $3,000. 28th-Fire caused by a disarrangement of the gas-fixtures in a house on Ninth-street,

SHERIPP'S SALES .- The Sheriff's sales of real estate yesterday morning were not largely at-tended, and the bidding was not very anima-ed. The following pieces were sold: Lot No. 2, in Barr, Lowis and Graham's sub-division, containing two and a half acres, fifty feet front, valued at $12 per foot, sold to fifty feet front, valued at $12 per foet, sold to Hugh McIrain for $8 per foot.

A short time sgo a dissolution took place of the firm of Neal & Simpson, inerchants doing business in a village near Ironton, in this State, with the understanding that the busi-ness of the firm should be closed up by Mr. Neal, who, we believe, was to continue it at the place previously occupied by himself and

At the time of the dissolution, however, At the time of the dissolution, however, Mr. Simpson had in his possession a lot of notes due the firm with which, as he said, he intended to pay off some of its debts. This was hardly in consonace with the terms upon which the parties had seperated, and gave rise to some hard feelings on the part of Neal, and finally to a quarrel, which resulted in blows and death. and death.

About three weeks ago the parties met, and being overcome by anger, Neal assaulted Simpson with his care and beat him quite severely. Fearing, from the condition in which he left the wounded man, that his recovery was a matter of doubt, he fled, and yesterday United States Deputy Marshall Man-son received a telegram to the effect that S. was dead, and stating that it was quite probable N. would soon arrive in this city, as the Lawrence County authorities had some reason to believe this was his destination.

An officer was accordingly stationed at the railroad depot, and on the arrival of Neal, arrested and committed him to the Hammond-street Station-house. He will probably by taken before Judge Lowe this morning, remanded into the custody of the Lawrence County officers, and taken to Ironton for a final examination and trial.

MERTING OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL USION .-The meeting of the Cincinnati Sunday School Union at Findley Chapel, corner of Cutter and Ciinton-streets, last night, was not so largely attended as could have been desired. This was doubtless owing partly to the distance persons would have to go from the more popu-lous part of the city, and partly to the streaming skies which wept great tears throughout the entire day and evening over the death of the beautiful Autumn that has just been buried by the sorrowful hand of a coming Winter. In spite of this, however, the attendance was fair and the exercises of more than ordi-nary interest. The subject of "Teachers' Meetings" was discussed at length, with much warmth, and all who heard the different addresses, left the place with a higher aim and a fuller appreciation of the duties and respon-sibilities of those who undertake the somewhat ardurous and, so far at least as this life is conceraed, almost thankless task of "training up a child in the way it should go." Few per sons are fully aware of the an nount and extent of the influence they wield in the capacity of teachers and these discussions tending as they do to give a higher idea of its vastness, cannot

A METEOROLOGICAL FABLE.- The beautiful Autumn met the young Winter, and her face was shaded with sorrow at the thought they sould be together but a moment; for when first she saw she loved him.

They gazed into each other's eyes. H touched her forehead with his lips, and the lovely maiden swooned and expired in his

For a while philosophy was powerful. He betrayed no emotion; but the cloud of agony was on his brow, and he walked the earth alone in stately grief.

Before many hours, nature re-asserted her self, and he poured the stream of woe until the heavens sympathized with his affliction, and paid the tribute of their copious tears. In unadulterated Gradgrindism the sky was clouded when December came to us, and it rained all day yesterday

TRAVEL ON WOOD STREET .- Now that some inerest is felt in regard to the amount of travel through the Western part of the city, some persons, yesterday, in an attempt to gratify their curiosity, which Emerson says is the only way by which great deeds are accomplished, made the discovery that during the eleven hours from 61/4 A. M. to 51/4 P. M., 1,256 horses, and 1,110 vehicles passed up and down Wood-street, between Fourth and Fifth. They were classed as follows:

HEALING -When a measure is passed indorsing action which needs some repair for in-formality, it is called "healing." When the District Court decided that the Police Court had no City Marshal, the Mayor appointed the following persons to not as infects in that Court and in the City Prison, 12: John El-lis, J. C. Winaus, Henry Meyer, Henry Wilson, and A. J. Scott. These officers have been allowed their pay at $1 60 per day. The appointments of the Masor are approved.

AT HIS POST AGAIN .- Mr. A. C. Parry, the skillful tinner, who, by long service and atten-tion to business, has won for himself a hubitation and a name, at No. 86 Vine-street, and who went off on a Southern trip a few months ago, has returned to his old stand, where be is prepared to do anything in his line, with the utmost dispatch, and in the most workmanlike manner. S. Foote on the "Patriot President." The fourth lecture of the course before the Library Association, was delivered last evenlog by Senator Heary S. Foote,on the "Patriot President." The weather was suicidal, the rain falling it torrents, and consequently Smith & Nixon's Hall was not more than half filled, but by an autience highly cultivated in character. The Ex Senator and former Governor of Mississippi, is a small, quite venerable-looking gentleman, with white hair and whiskers, indicating more years than he has seen, and apparently of a nervous organization, with something antic in his semblance and manner. ie has an earnest and impassioned style of delivery, which, though not oratorical nor grace-ful, would be apt to convince his hearers of his

The lecturer spoke of Washington as the "Patriot President," one who, unbiased by party feeling or political consideration, ac-cepted the high office from a sense of duty cepted the high omce from a sense of duty and from a pure and perfect love of country. Its was the choice of the people, and their tearts approved their election. He had tearned their requirements, and comprehended their sentiments, and with no other hands their propagative and thought than to insure their prosperity and happiness, had be commanded to assume the responsibilities of his exalted position.

years who emulated and imitated Washingon's example; who practically remembered is precepts, and sought to follow in his foot-

Now-a-days party ruled everything, and mea claimed credit and honor, not for patriot ism, but for fidelity to the principles and teachings of their party. They regarded sectional interests and sectional feelings, seeming to forcet they were bound in direct. get they were bound in duty and in bonor to administer affairs that they would redound to the general good.

The present time and temper of the people sere deplorable. Had they forgotten they and fought side by side, and gained their liberties tegether? Had they forgotten the blessug of the heritage and the deep trust assigned them? Had they ceased to remember the glary of the past, and begun to fear the shadow of the future?

As for the lecturer, he would rather be private patriot than a successful partisan, and selieved the man who did not feel so was noking in the essential elements of a true Re-The Ex Senstor had faith in national men that freely, faithfully and fearlessly.

There was little new or original in the ExSenator's discourse, but the matter was worthy of reflection and all commendation; and coming from one who has gained the reputation of sincere, though sometimes erring statesman, it was listened to with attention, approval and respect.

The audience at the Opera-house was excellent in quality, but quite small, and the programme passed off admirably.

This evening Sheridan Knowles's comedy of The Love Chase will be presented, with an admirable cast. together with The Two Buzzanob, in which Addie Proctor, who has already become a favorite as "Saily," and Davidge as "John Smail," will so contrive us to send the antience, which will doubtless be large, away to the best of spirits.

Wood's Turaten.—The magnetic power of the awest-voiced Carrie Richinas does not seem to diminish, and as this evening has been set apart for her benefit, the popular place of amissement at which she appears will, we hope, he crowded. The hill is an excellent one, and embraces, the drama Louise de Ligsebolles, the Bossie Fish Wiff and the patriotic allegory of Wishisolon, in all of which the benificeare will appear. NATIONAL THRATER.—Mr. J. B. Roberts, who for nearly three weeks has been drawing fine audiences to the National, to witness the magnificent spectrate FAUST AND MASQUENTS, will take a tenefic at this establishment this evening, upon which ocasion he will appear in the title rule in Shakepar's tragedy of Richaus Thinn, and us "Mephistophiles" in the last set of the drama taken from Goethe's FAUST. The merit of the beneficiarle and the bill, should pack "Old Drury" in every part.

SMITH & NIXON'S HALL -The popular choral SMITH & NIXON'S HALL.—The popular choral and orchestral combination known as the Old Hundred, who sppear in costumes of a century ago, give one of their unique musical entertainments this svening at Smith & Nixon's Hall. The programme both in its vocal and instrumental parts, has been almirably selected and comprises twenty-four pieces of standard, acred and secular music. The principal performers, Miss Jenny Twitchell and Mesers, it. U. and Rudoiphus Hall, have already earned an extended reputation, and we doubt not will full justify the accounts which have preceded them.

LAW REPORT.

SUPERIOR COURT. PRODUCTION OF TELEGRAPH MESSAGES IN

PRODUCTION OF TELEGRAPH MESSAGES IN COURT.—During the progress of a case selemitted to Judge Storer—R. Holden & Co. vs. the Adams Express Company—a question arose as to the right of counsel to require the production of a t-legraph dispatch sout by one of the parties from Cincinnati to St. Louis.

A subpena, followed by a rule to show their cause, was issued for Mr. C. Davenport, agent of the 1 mion Telegraph Company, and on this gentleman, in obedience to the rule, waking his appearance in propring the country of the progression, and by his counsel, R. M. Corwine, he remed to deliver up the original message, except on the request of the party who left it.

Judge Storer held that no individual or corporation was not protected by any rule of law in withholding a written or other communication when called for in a Court of Justice. This was the case in court-martials and grand juries—the only exception being where a dying man made a disclosure to a priest or where the latter should receive such in the course of his religious daties. The paper was then ordered to be placed on file by the Court.

Mr. Corwine and that Mr. Devenport, in view of the inflexible rule of the Company, declined to surrender the neessage.

The Court then intimated that the Sheriff would

The Court thee intimated that the Sheriff would have to take charge of Mr. Davenport.

This exweme course, however, was rendered unitoessary by the party interested in the communication to sonting that it should be produced.

The message was then handed in.

CHIMINAL SIDE - The following Jurors were CHMINAL SIDE.—The following Jurors were sworn in the case of the State against James Burns for murder in the first degree: Thomas Dunger tolerance Township; Otiver Manon, do.; Robe, the ingston, do., Heart Gooch, City; W. Hamel, Mill creek Township; A. W. Armstrong, Green Township; J. P. Batgeley, Millcreek Township; G. W. Roller, do; W. T. kodenas, City; Thos. Paul, do.
The winesses produced on the former trial were then called.

PROBATE COURT.

THE OHIO LIFE ISSUEANCE AND TRUST COM-FRAY ASSETS. In response to a citation from this Court, J. P. Rilbraith, Truster, filed an answer and exhibits. The Court made an order that he should give bond sithin ten days in the sum of $100,000; and that he should within their days file in the Court an inventory in detail of all the property and assets of said company, which have come to his possession, to-gether with a schedule of the creditors whose claim-iave been allowed. Also, that he file an account of the property and effects that came into the passe-sion of Ste son and others former Trustees, giving the amount and names of the parties that has settled with the Company, and also of their receipts and ex-positive, from the commencement of the original trust.

CITY Council - Repairs amounting to $10 CITY COUNCIL —Repairs amounting to $10 were anthorized at the foot of Monmeuth-street.

The Committee on Internal Improvements asked an appropriation of $10 85 to pay for the grading of counting testing the council of the Episcopal Church, which they (the Committee) had ordered to be done, without authority from the Council.

This gave rise to an animated discussion in which the Committee received a desperate existeation at the bands of Mr. Allen, who is ever vigilant in guarding the treasury, and opposing any appropriation therefrom, though it be butten cents for a loaf of bread to relieve an invalid pauper.

Adjourned. MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE,-Wm. Stewart.

an old man, 50 years of age, formerly a resident of Louisville, left his home, on the corner of Sixth and threenup-streets day before yesterday, at hall-gast one o'clock, and has not been seen or heard of since. Any information about him will be thankfully re-ceived by his relatives, who are, of course, extremely arrend for his safety.

Grand Linceny.—An Irishman named Pat Donohue was resterday held to ball in the sum of $200 for his appearance at the next term of the Cir-cuis Court, on a charge of stealing a Colt's repeating pistol.

DECLINED.—Charter H. Raily, nominated by the Opposition of the Fourth Ward as a candidate for Council, has declined.

Monetary and Commercial.

The rate of Eastern Exchange, as had been anticipated, was advanced yesterday to 54 buying, and 34 erem. selling, by all the bankers; and though the market was steady throughout the day, there was no lisposition manifested to purchase more than was quired for immediate wants. During the packing season Exchange rules low, and at any time when bills are freely offered and currency quite close, the rate may still tumble down. Good rat business in Third-street was affected by the rate storm yesterday, and little done in the banking marter, where Mozey, however, was reported close aithout pressure.

parter, where Mozey, however, was reported close atthout pressure.

No change: of consequence occurred, and the compexion of affairs in Monetary circles indicated nothing new for the present.

Holders of Flour were firm yesterday, but the inclement westher and the New York new interfored aith transactions, and few were made. Whilely was citive and 26 higher. Hogs were quiet, effected omewhat by the weather, and prices slightly eacher, but holders would make no concession of consequence. The sales reached 2/78 head. Provisions were newly and drooping. Frime red Wheat advanced oper burbel. Other kinds of grain were steady but anchanged.

1857. 1858. 1859. $1,418.601 Previously reported. 65,030,010 $5,001,290 $0.231,912 Since January 1...$66,269,868 $55,716,810 $60,650,903 Wednesday's New York Herald observes concerning

Tuesday:

"The Money market does not work as easily te-day through we can not quote an advance in rates. Call loans are readily had at $526,5% being perhaps the average figure. As for paper, first-class short acceptances continue to go at 6 per cent. longer paper, every prime, with two names, 65,675. The market rate for good four and six mounts paper is, however, 758, and the business done is oftener at the latter from the former figure. It is presumed that the lanks are pursuing a more sensible course, and ceasing to expand.

The foreign bankers are doing little or nothing in foreign built; their asking rates are still 110 for Starting, 5.13% for francs, but the amail demand which xists is supplied at 109% 200%, and 5.1626.16M. There are some very good mercantile bills in the market which can not be sold above 1694. The leading drawers are free buyers of cotton bills at the South, notwithstanding the price." Tuesday:

The changes in last week's Boston Bank statement from the previous week are as follows: Last week's New Orleans Bank statement shows the following changes from the previous week:

63,650 Monday's Crescent says of the statement:

The increase in Exchange is much less than it ought to be. The return ought to have exhibited an increase of fully half a million of dollars. The species reserves show $\frac{81}{2}$, 485, 190 against $\frac{51}{4}$, 421, 314 same time last year. The deposit line shows an increase of only $\frac{52}{2}$, 381. Same week last year the increase was one million four hundred and eleven thousand dollars. Not a very flattering comparison, and showing conclusively that more maney has been disbursed, spent out of the State by traveling and other ways than many people have an idea of.
